ADELAIDE HILLS TOURISM

Adelaide Hills Tourism Incorporated (AHT) is the region's peak tourism body. The independent Board, including the honorary role of Chair, provides voluntary leadership driven by a shared commitment to the local visitor economy.

The Board of the not-for-profit includes representatives from major funding partners Adelaide Hills Council and Mount Barker District Council, key industry bodies and tourism operators from the region.

The Board contributes to a vibrant and sustainable tourism economy through leadership, representation, information sharing, capability building, and strategic projects.

There is an opportunity for a consummate and proven governance leader to step into the position of Chair.

Applications are encouraged from appropriately qualified and proven senior executives and non-executive directors with demonstrated experience leading strategy and growth initiatives across the tourism sector.

Experience across small business, stakeholder and community engagement, regional development, and federal, state and local government will be highly regarded. Strong levels of commercial and political acumen, complemented by exceptional leadership, communication, negotiation and stakeholder management capacity are all essential qualities sought.

This key voluntary position will suit an accomplished individual motivated to add value during a pivotal time for the Adelaide Hills region and the tourism sector. Applicants living or working in the Adelaide Hills are preferred, but not essential.

Selection criteria will include, but not be limited to:

- Knowledge of tourism and Adelaide Hills Tourism strategy.
- Experience driving strategy in tourism or comparable dynamic industry.
- Experience with stakeholders, community engagement, regional development, state, local and federal government.
- Commercial and political acumen.
- Relevant executive experience including leadership, Board and Chair experience.
- Governance and risk experience.
